Committees:

Mayor:

- Fire on Main Street with no injuries. Firemen responded promptly and did excellent job.
- Light-Up Night will be at the SV Youth Center On Friday, November 25, with Santa appearing at 6:30 p.m.
- Need a dumpster to clean up Palmer property. Hopefully two of the local churches will help defray the cost. Tony Arduini moved to rent a dumpster and to pursue the Methodist and Presbyterian churches for their help. Randy Arduini seconded. Motion carried. Keven will call for dumpster.

Water:

- September and October water report given.

Technology:

- Internet for cameras at park too expensive. Keys needed for police and Tony to look at cameras.
- Light-Up Night: Tree will be donated by Sam Goldstrohm; Kathy will get candy and hot chocolate.

Building and Maintenance:

- Davidson/Banks property. Borough not interested. Secretary will send letter.
- Need to put school property on insurance.

Other:

- Discussed Christmas dinner. Will table the appreciation dinner for this year, and possibly have something later.
- Kevin asked permission to order a good flashlight from Kiski Uniforms for estimate of $100. Council agreed.

Frank Palilla moved to adjourn. Tony Arduini seconded. Meeting adjourned.
